VICTORY FOURTH IN CONNELLVILLE
TO BE A QUIET ONE

Only Excitement During Independence Day Will Be
From Fireworks.

MANY GOING ELSEWHERE

Celebrations at Scottsdale and Dickerson Run Will Draw Goodly Number, Others Will Seek Quiet of the Woods; Big Events Come Next Week

The Fourth of July in Connellsville will not be generally observed by any celebration here on account of the big event next week in the form of soldiers' Home-Coming celebration. Most of this city's celebrators will go away for the day, a majority to Scottsdale and many groups or individuals will go elsewhere.

The shooting of fireworks in the city will be allowed to a certain degree. All noise making devices of the dangerous kind are prohibited. Small crackers, however, are free from a ban.

There is no restriction on night fireworks except that persons are cautioned not to be careless in discharging them. Before firing rockets or roman candles they should be aimed away from residences. The fire department will be exceptionally alert tomorrow in answering any calls.

Indications today were that the general flow from this city would be towards Scottsdale where the big time has been planned. Others will hike into the mountains and still others will take advantage of the excursion to Killbuck Park.

Special street car service will be run by the West Penn Railways company throughout the day. Crowds are expected to go to both Shady Grove and Oakford parks. Dancing will be the chief attractions at both places.

Although Connellsville will not have a celebration tomorrow it will present a gala appearance, as decorations are going up rapidly for the Home-Coming reception next week.

Scottsdale has arranged for a monster celebration of the Fourth and the return of the service men, the affair to be in the form of a basket picnic at Ellsworth park. Prominent in the picnic will be a military parade, winding up at the park. At 12 o'clock a court of honor will be dedicated at the park. Features of the afternoon are a ball game, races, and several boxing bouts. At night there will be fireworks.

Many from Connellsville will go to Dickerson Run where a big celebration is planned. The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Y. M. C. A. has arranged a field meet in the afternoon and ball games morning, 10:30, and afternoon, 3:30. The field meet will begin at 1 o'clock. The complete program is found on another page in The Courier.

Blairsville boys, members of Company L, 110th Infantry, were given a rousing welcome home yesterday. Preparations for many weeks past culminated in a celebration that surpassed anything ever before held in the town. Homes and business houses were gaily decorated, stores and manufacturing plants were closed, patriotic addresses were made by military men, following a big parade, luncheon was served to the soldiers at the State Armory and as a culmination of the day a soldiers' ball was conducted in the evening.

Among the speakers were: Gen. Richard Coulter, Capt. Charles Schall, senior chaplain of the 28th Division, Lieutenant C. Earl McNamany of Pittsburgh, chaplain of the 110th Regiment, and Colonel Edwin H. Martin.

WAYNESBURG, Pa., July 3.—A formal welcome home to Waynesburg's men in the service of their country will be given Independence Day. Plans now about completed include a parade, addresses and airplane flights by Army aviators and by Delloyd Thompson of Washington, Pa.

The speakers will include Brigadier General Richard Coulter, Colonel Henry Coulter and General Charles M. Clement.

140 Yanks in Army of Occupation
Seek Marriage Permits.
By Associated Press.

COBLENZ, July 3.—The judge, advocate's department of the Army of Occupation has been flooded with inquiries as to whether American soldiers will be permitted to marry German girls now that the peace treaty has been signed. More than 140 applications came from as many individuals, representing five divisions of the Third Army and various other units.

A ruling on the question will be made in a few days. The order against fraternizing with the Germans is still in force, nominally at least, and will continue probably until Germany ratifies the treaty.

STREET DECORATING FOR CELEBRATION IS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Chairman J. E. Angle Calls on Merchants to Beautify Places of Business.

The street decorating for the Home-Coming celebration is progressing rapidly and today will see much additional work completed. Chairman J. E. Angle of the central committee said this morning that although the street decorating and lighting was not yet near completion it was coming along very satisfactorily. He also asked that the merchants or owners of business buildings in the city have the structures decorated as soon as possible, especially as the decorations will serve as a good advertisement if they are up for the Fourth and on Saturday.

Mr. Angle pointed out that this is allowed to go until the last minute the decorators will be rushed and will be unable to do all the work as efficiently as would be possible when more time is given. The bridge was transformed into a gay arch of red, white and blue streamers and flags by the decorators yesterday and the fire station on the West Side was also brightened up.

The celebration will open Sunday with a memorial service in honor of those who gave up their lives in the cause and will come to a close Wednesday night with a series of band concerts. In between are scheduled many other events that should prove enjoyable to the soldier guests and the home folks who do them honor.

The President is devoting most of his time to his message to Congress. His address to the soldiers and blue-jackets on board on the Fourth of July will be delivered at 3 P. M. from the cross deck with the Army and Navy men massed on the main deck below.

A novel feature of the occasion of the Independence Day exercises will be telephone for transmitting a presidential speech. Wireless News from the Hues Airship
Indicates Conditions Could Not Be Better; Elaborate Preparations for Insuring a Safe Landing Are Made.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 3.—The report from the giant airship R-34 to the air ministry at 9 o'clock Greenwich time (5 o'clock New York time), showed that she was continuing her progress in an almost due westerly course. At 9 o'clock Greenwich time her position was 52 degrees 50 minutes north latitude, 34 degrees 40 minutes west longitude. The report said the airship was cruising above fog.

LONDON, July 3.—The British air ministry announced today that it expected the dirigible R-34, now in mid-ocean on her trans-Atlantic flight, to reach St. John's N. F. Friday morning and Hazelhurst Field, L. I., early on Saturday morning.

LONDON, July 3, 9:56 A. M.—The air ministry received a report from the British dirigible R-34 at 6:11 this morning, Greenwich mean time, giving the position of the craft at 52 degrees, 30 minutes north and 30 degrees west. This is approximately half way to Newfoundland.

The British warship Renown, stationed in mid-Atlantic, reported at 6:15 this morning that the barometer was steady, the wind was blowing about four miles an hour from the northwest, the sky was clear, visibility good and the sea was smooth.

MINNEAPOLIS, N. Y., July 3.—With everything in readiness to receive the giant dirigible R-34, officers of the Royal air force, the United States aviation units and United States Army fliers are constantly on the alert to maintain a perfect organization that will insure the landing of the great gas bag without mishap. According to calculations the R-34 is expected to settle down over Roosevelt Field soon after noon on Friday.

The R-34 will not establish direct radio communication with Roosevelt Field until within about 500 miles of the coast, as her sending apparatus will not carry beyond that distance.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 3.—The wireless station here reports having heard signals last night from the R-34, indicating that all was well and that the dirigible was continuing her westward journey. The position of the ship was not reported.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 3.—Vice Admiral Mary Kerr announced today that he had abandoned the proposed trans-Atlantic flight in a Handley-Page bombing machine and that he would fly to Atlantic City, probably starting this afternoon if the weather permits.

APPEAL BEER RULING

Enough Facts Presented, U. S. Attorney Declares.

By Associated Press.
BALTIMORE, July 3.—The government yesterday made an appeal to the Supreme court from the decision of United States District Judge Rose, who sustained the demurrer of the Standard Brewery of Baltimore to an indictment charging it with making and selling beer containing one-half of one per cent alcohol.

The United States District Attorney contends that the court erred in sustaining the demurrer and in holding that the original indictment did not state facts sufficient to constitute an offense against the United States.

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.—Two test cases involving 2 1/2 per cent beer were filed here yesterday. G. Neil Bonner, president of the Liquor Dealers' association, agreed to sell beer to agents of the Department of Justice and was immediately arrested and will be given a hearing before a United States commissioner. At the same time United States District Attorney Kane asked permission in Federal court to file information against the Borgner & Engel Brewing company, charging the concern with manufacturing beer containing more than one-half of one per cent alcohol. The case was framed and was argued today.

Reserve Men Must Report.

Colonel R. C. Williams, in charge of the Army recruiting in Pittsburg, has received an order that men who belong to the United States Army Reserve and who have been discharged from the service are required to report during the month of July either to an officer in charge of a recruiting station or to the postmasters of their respective towns.

CARNIVAL LICENSE FOR WELCOME WEEK WILL BE REFUSED

Emphatic Statement By Acting
Mayor Hoover Disposes of Matter.

COMMITTEES STILL BUSY

Central Body Engaged Again Today
in Closing up Details of the Celebration; Basket Picnic Monday Gives Promise of Being a Hummer.

"There will be no carnival in Connellsville during the celebration week," said Acting Mayor E. W. Hoover this morning. This definitely disposes of the mooted question. The acting mayor will refuse a license to the company which is billed to show. By so doing the executive relieved the New Haven Hose company, which contracted for the exhibition, of liability in event of suit for the amount of the guarantee.

Committees of the central body in charge of the preparations for the Home-Coming celebration are still in session today completing the details for next week's reception. The committee is deciding questions as they come up and practically all important matters have been cleared up.

With the program for every hour of the day arranged the committee now expects the basket picnic in the grove at the Davidson addition on Monday to be one of the biggest events of the celebration.

Not only will visitors coming into the city go to the woods for their meals but many townspeople will do the same. The committee requests that this be done and hopes to have a basket picnic of such monstrous size that it can be called second to none.

Persons motoring to the city or coming in on street cars can easily secure a place for their "crowd" in the spacious fields of the Davidson addition and are urged to bring their baskets with them.

The Connellsville Military band is considering holding its annual basket picnic at that place on Monday and other organizations may fall into line.

Another important work being done today is that of the comforts committee. This committee has not been very active in the past weeks and is now completing its duties with a rush. Every possible attention will be given to visitors in the city.

The Boy Scouts will play an important part in the comforts division. The scouts meet tonight at the Carnegie Library at 7 o'clock to receive their instructions. It is desired that each scout be present as every boy will be needed next week.

SPECIAL CAR SERVICE

License Issued to John Lofink to Tomorrow.

Special street car service will be run on the West Penn tomorrow, throughout the day. Double-deckers will be on between Scottsdale and Uniontown as many persons in the district are expected to go to the celebration at the former place.

There will be 30 minute service on the Hecla to Greensburg route, and 30 minute service on the Hunker to Greensburg line.

All main line cars between Uniontown and Greensburg will run via the Hunker route. This will necessitate a change at Scottdale for Mount Pleasant.

There will be 15 minute service on the South Connellsville line and a 40 minute schedule will be observed on the Vanderbilt line.

WILL WITNESS BIG FIGHT

Several From Connellsville to Be at Willard-Dempsey Rhugside.

Connellsville will be represented at the Willard-Dempsey fight, in Toledo tomorrow. The world championship scrap will come off at 3 o'clock, central time, or 4 o'clock Connellsville time. Among the persons who will witness the bout will be W. D. McGinnis, Basil J. Soisson, J. M. Grey, K. K. Kramer, George Cochran and William Turner.

Some local persons who had expected to witness the fight did not go on account of the inability of late arrivals in Toledo to secure lodging. Local sports fans are watching the progress of the principals with connellsville and known to fighters, as very competent officials would be selected.

Home From Battle Creek.

Dr. A. J. Colburn, who accompanied Dr. G. W. Newcomer to a sanitarium at Battle Creek, Mich., accompanied by his two daughters, the Misses Colburn, arrived home last night. Mrs. S. S. Stahl, a sister of Dr. Newcomer, remained. The patient is receiving medical treatment and if necessary an operation will be performed as soon as his condition will permit.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THROUGH THE TOILS"—A World production in which Montague Love, the best character actor in America, is seen in a dual role as being shown today. Never has Love been seen to a better advantage than in this story of an eccentric old actor who has lost his inspiration and who tries to renew this inspiration by engineering and then wrecking a love affair. The two roles in which he appears are as different as the two roles and yet he invests each of them with warmth and reality and makes them stand out as vital and vivid. The story told in this picture is strikingly different and intensely gripping. It is a story of such an altogether surprising nature that it is sure to remain in your mind for a long time after you have seen it. The picture has been lavishly staged and from every angle is a notable film. Supporting Mr. Love in this production is a splendid cast, including such well known players as Ellen Cassidy, Gertrude LeBrandt, Thomas Carr, Laura West and Joseph Burke. An interesting weekly review is also being shown Friday and Saturday. Geraldine Farrar, the celebrated actress, will be featured in "The Stronger Vow."

THE SOISSON.

"BRASS CHECKS"—A five part feature in which William Russell is seen in a splendid role as being shown today. In this latest release Russell borrows the uniform of an accommodating policeman in order to woo the girl, having been told she is a lady's maid. How the uniform gets him into a lively scrap with an ugly gunman, how with its aid, he cleans up a lawless western town in less than twenty-four hours, how he manages his trip to the altar and then breaks up the wedding in order to dodge a supposed assassin—these are only a few of the thrilling happenings that are crowded into five reels of fun and romance. Lovely Eileen Percy plays opposite Mr. Russell. A selected comedy is also being shown Friday and Saturday. William Desmond, the popular screen star will appear in "Dare Fisted Gallagher," his latest release. Max Pickford, the idol of the screen will be presented soon in "Daddy Long Legs," one of the biggest screen attractions of the year.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

William P. Sherman, who left his desk as city editor of The Courier in December, 1917, to enlist as a member of the Allegheny General Hospital Unit, later known as Camp Hospital No. 21, American Expeditionary Forces, with which he served during the war, today resumes his connection with this paper in the capacity of associate editor.

CLOSING THE CARNAVAL INCIDENT.

The opposition of the members of the Home-Coming Celebration, and of citizens generally, to the presence of a carnival during celebration week, or at any time, is not because of a lack of sympathy with or interest in the firemen, as these men are well aware. The opposition exists because, in the judgment of the average citizen, and as the experience of Connelville and other cities and towns has so abundantly proven, this form of amusement is undesirable, to say the least.

The firemen of Connelville have frequently expressed a desire to get away from carnivals as agencies for raising money, but no substitute has yet been found, or none employed except canvassing, to take their place. Inasmuch as canvassing for funds usually lays the burden of providing them upon a few people, the firemen have employed carnivals only as a means of accomplishing the same purpose through voluntary contributions by a very much larger number of people.

In the present instance, when the plans for the celebration were being worked out, it was the understanding that no carnival would be billed for next week. A contract for such an attraction having been made, without the knowledge or consent of the celebration committee, the latter was quite within its rights in objecting to the coming of the carnival, as not in harmony with the celebration program and as contrary to the understanding that had earlier been reached. Having made a contract for a carnival upon the assurance of Mayor Duggan that it would grant it a license, the firemen have placed themselves in the position of being liable for the payment of the guarantee in case they should cancel the contract.

A way out of the situation, insofar as relates to providing the firemen with the funds they planned to raise through the carnival for the purpose of defraying the convention expenses, has been reached through the suggestion made at yesterday's meeting of the celebration committee. In brief, the plan is for the street fair association, which made so pronounced a success of the Red Cross benefit during the war, to assist the firemen in raising the money needed by them to finance the convention. At the same time the carnival is to be eliminated from next week's list of attractions.

Preventing the appearance of the carnival rests with Acting Mayor Hoover, who, as vice president of the city council, has all power and authority of the mayor in the latter's absence or disability to grant or refuse a license to the carnival. Such action will doubtless involve the firemen in a claim for damages for breach of contract, but the responsibility will rest upon the city rather than the firemen, through the refusal by Acting Mayor Hoover to grant a license. This situation can also be met, it is understood, in such a way that neither the city nor the firemen will suffer loss. That being the case, this public, and the celebration committee, will look to Acting Mayor Hoover to take such action as will bring what promised to be a more or less unpleasant incident to a close. At the same time the obligation will rest upon the people of the city to join heartily and help generously in the job the street fair association has assumed of raising funds for the firemen.

DOUBTS DISPELLED.

Those citizens who have been disposed to think, and in unguarded moments to speak, unkindly or ungenerously of the part Uniontown has been taking in the Fayette County Home-Coming Celebration, to be held in Connelville, ought to feel themselves under the compulsion to hold their tongues for the ungraciousness. The receipt from the Uniontown committee of $1,701.62, to be applied to the expenses of the celebration, ought also to rebuke those who were inclined to be more critical of Uniontown than they were helpful to Connelville.

When the Uniontown committee so unreservedly surrendered to Con-nelville the right and privilege to stage the county's formal welcome to the returned service men, and offered to assist in the great undertaking, this act of self-effacement upon the part of Uniontown was taken as evidence that every promise made by her representatives would be kept in letter and spirit.

Due to the fact that a separate Uniontown celebration has since been organized by persons not associated with those who made the advances to Connelville, the impression has existed in some quarters that Uniontown had not only lost all sympathy and interest in the county enterprise to be held in Connelville, but was actually planning a sort of rival attraction. This has been most unfortunate in having resulted in a lack of that complete cooperation between the two cities which was expected from the beginning. Most fortunately, however, the situation has been cleared.

Connelville has never disputed the right of Uniontown to hold a celebration of its own, and hopes that next to ours it will be the biggest that has ever been held in the county. But we have firmly believed that our sister city would keep faith with us by rendering the necessary aid and assistance to make the county celebration here all that it is hoped it will be and all that it should be as a worthy tribute of respect to the young men of the county who willingly went forth to do or die in their country's cause.

If we have doubted Uniontown, through her committee of representative citizens who met with ours, would fail to keep pledges made, we should now be glad that such doubts have been dispelled.

Acting Mayor Hoover is absolutely right in his position that street booths and other craft for the sale of articles during the celebration must paddle their own canoes but without the use of paddle wheels.

The Chautauque will have a strong competitor in the Home-Coming Celebration on certain days but otherwise one ought to boost the other.

If a soft answer turneth away wrath will not soft drinks turn away some of the causes thereof?

"Our flag is there, our word is there and our honor is there," is the expressive form of notice General Pershing gives to the Germans that the Watch on the Rhine has not run down.

A respectful and quiet celebration of tomorrow will be most fitting as well as tending to fit us for the strenuous program of the week to follow.

Hindenburg expresses a willingness to face a firing squad but thinks that by standing an old man, who has but one day's duty left against a wall, the Allies "would only lead another disgrace upon themselves." But how about unleashing one from Germany meantime?

THOSE UNFORTUNATE BREAKS.

When I was very wise and young I kept no brakes upon my tongue. I let it gallop, trot or pace at any time or any place. And frequently to my chagrin I used to exclaim "my chin." But I'm older grown today. And do not have to much to say. Unless I'm certain of my ground my vocal chords don't make a sound.

"Oh, gossip," said I, with courage rare. "Who is that homey woman there? In all my days I've never seen a living human better than you. There's a dame from feet to chin that's just as flat and just as thin. She's one of the angels high above. Would find it difficult to love. Yes, some guy's tied to her for life!"

"Yes," said the stranger, "she's my wife."

"Of all the books that I recall, There goes the biggest book of all. If that bird had a pound of brain, He'd still be far from being sane. The pretty dame turned her head: 'That is my brother Joe,' she said. 'There goes a chap that I detest. He is a nuisance and a pest.' The lady's cheeks at once turned red. 'That is my husband, sir,' she said.

"Oh, lessons I have sadly learned As with shagrin my cheeks have burned. Oh, upstart things I've made in vain As I've attempted to explain. Oh bitter hurts I've tried to nurse And soothe, always to make them worse. Now I am older grown and gray And do not have so much to say. I hold my tongue, and never let It utter speech I may regret."

SO WHEN ARE BRINKS IN THE AD AT THE LAST MINUTE AGAIN, JESUS WELL, I AM GOING TO RUN HER AD IN RUNNER AD OUTSIDE!

OH, MR. O'BRIEN, JUST ONE MORE CHANCE.

MICKIE WOULD LIKE TO BE BOSS ABOUT FIFTEEN MINUTES!

Do You Know That

we have sixty-three grocery stores located throughout the coke region, every one of our department stores have a grocery. It is, we believe, one of our very important departments. Connected with the grocery is a high class, sanitary meat market and a produce market. It is a well known fact throughout the coke region that our department stores are in every respect high class. It is a further well known fact that our grocery provision, and produce departments are superior and excel any in the entire region, not only in high class quality, but in lower prices. It is easy to write advertisements and make statements, but if you are skeptical about statements your test is to visit our stores and investigate. That's the dumb witness we have to offer. See the immense shipments coming in daily, fresh high class. See the entire arrangement, the system of the stores, and you will be convinced that our statement is very modest.

SNOW WHITE WORK.

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits over time.

Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork. By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

Timidity, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardliness, are due in a large measure to abused nerves.

People with plenty of red blood capacities and strong, healthy nerves have no desire to shirk work and lean on others for guidance and support.

There is hardly a nerve-chattered man or woman (unless an organic disease) in America today who cannot become alert and clear in mind; vigorous and energetic in body in a very few weeks and at trifling cost.

To become strong and ambitious, to feel that work is not drudgery; to have steady nerves, abundance of red blood and power of endurance; to be not only a man but as man now go, a superman, you must take seven tablets of Bio-form every day for seven days—and take them faithfully.

Take two after each meal, and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not twice as steady as before; if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen-minded, the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

Bio-form is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, rundown, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through druggists and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

BETTER HEALTH FOR B. McFADDEN OF HUTCHINSON

Coke Worker's Rheumatism and Other Serious Ills Surrender to Nerv-Worth.

Daily the sale of this famous family tonic rises to higher levels with the Connellsville Drug company and daily the stream of praise from thankful Nerv-Worth customers reaches new proportions. Here is a strong one from Burt McFadden, well known worker at the Oliphant coke works, near Uniontown.

For a long time I have suffered with misery in my back and rheumatic pains in my shoulder. My appetite and digestion in very bad condition. Was very nervous and could not get restful sleep. Could no work except in terrible pain. I was in such a miserable and rundown condition and suffering with pain that in order to get out of bed in the mornings I would have to use all my strength. I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth and took it as directed and my nervousness, misery in my back, rheumatic pains and all digestive troubles have left me and I am now feeling like a new man and able to do a good day's work. # GREAT CREDIT GIVEN TO COACH BILLY LUSH FOR NAVY'S BASEBALL SUCCESS

An Incident of Army-Navy Game—Safe at First.

With its baseball team beating the army nine for the first time since 1908 and its crews sweeping the Schuykill this is a big season for the navy. This year already has proved itself the most successful in the history of sport at Annapolis, and it culminates in a football triumph over the army next November. It will go down as a record breaker for excellence. For the navy's splendid showing in baseball, as well as in basketball, in which it had the strongest five in the East and South, great credit must go to Billy Lush, the coach. He could not prevent the periodical genial performances of his pupils, but when they steeled it, usually was through his influence. Lush's handling of the pitchers was masterly. He took Ganges out at the proper time and he relieved "Right-Hander" Baker at just the right moment. "Left-Hander" Baker, who finished the game, should have started it. Had he done so we do not believe that the army would have carried the contest into extra innings. "Left-Hander" Baker is only a plebe, and it is not customary to give the first team the preference when it can be avoided in the big service games. But things broke just as Lush wanted them and the navy throttled that old flux which had despaired of doing away with.

ORE BUYING SLOW

Delay of Merchant Furnaces in Close May Result in a Rush Later.

According to the Pittsburgh correspondent of the Daily Iron Trade, ore buying is very inactive in spite of the improvement in the pig iron situation and the fact that not a few of the merchant producers of foundry iron now are practically filled up for the last half year. Almost nothing comparatively has yet been done with the matter of contract for Lake Superior iron ore supplies. Some shipments are being made against requirements but since no signed contracts exist in such cases, the risk is entirely with the producer.

Merchant manufacturers of basic pig iron appear to have some stocks of ore left and have not worked off their yard accumulations of pig iron sufficiently to give much consideration to the thought of buying in idle stacks. Consequently, they are putting off the purchase of ore until actual improvement is seen.

The former impression are that prices will be materially lower, appears to have vanished and it would seem that the market was ripe for some activity before long, if for no other reason than the desire on the part of the blast furnace interests to be protected against the falling away in the movement of ore that will come later in the year.

Declaration of Independence

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident:—That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate, that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design, to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these states. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature—a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing, with manly firmness, his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large, for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasions from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for the naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitutions, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us;

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States;

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world;

For imposing taxes on us without our consent;

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury;

For transporting us beyond seas, to be tried for pretended offences;

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies;

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments;

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us. He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burned our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

It is at this time transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrection among us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms; our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in our attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity; and we have conjured them, by the ties of our common kindred, to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence.

They, too, have been deaf to the voice of justice and conciliation. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name and by the authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these united Colonies are, and of right ought to be free and independent states; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent states, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

THOUSANDS WILL ATTEND BRITTON- DOTY FIGHT HERE

Adequate Provision Being Made to Handle as Many as 10,000 Persons.

NAME REFEREE TOMORROW

Champion Can Choose One of Three Men If He So Wishes; Otherwise
The Sports Committee Will Make
The Selection After Tomorrow.

Accommodations for 10,000 persons are being made at Fayette Field where the championship fight between Jack Britton, holder of the world to the welter-weight title, and Al Doty, the Canton, O., challenger, is to take place on Wednesday, July 9, the last day of the soldiers Home-Coming celebration.

At first the sports committee did not anticipate handling more than a few thousand persons but the fight is now attracting such wide interest over the county that work was at once started to handle many more. The arena will be in the center of the big field and of such a height that it can be seen from all parts.

Just as rapidly as the sporting public grasps the significance of the big card which is to be presented on that day, the rate of tickets increases. For the first time, and what will likely be the only time in years to come Fayette county boxing followers will be enabled to see a real championship fight for a world title right at home.

There will be no hitch in the program whatever. There is at present only one slight controversy and it will quickly be settled by the sports committee. That matter of a referee has aroused some feeling. The champion asked to be allowed to choose his own man but this right was refused.

Britton will, however, be given the opportunity to select the official from one of the following three: Eddie Kennedy, York Henninger, and Joe Donnelly, all of Pittsburgh. The men are considered the best to be had in this section. Britton wished to have Jim Stout of Milwaukee as the third man in the ring.

The title holder has until tomorrow night to let the committee know of his selection. If, at that time, he does not name a man, the sports committee will do so itself.

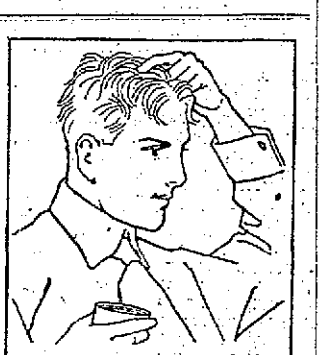

Tickets will be placed on sale immediately at Doyle's and Enos' cigar stores. They are already on sale at the Moose lodge rooms.

The military parade will disband at Fayette Field just before the hour set for the boxing and in order to handle the crowds, four gateways into the field are being constructed. These entrances will allow one man at a time to go through. The championship match will really close the celebration week, and in all is one of the biggest features of any day.

How Many Women Do You Know

Who can say they are perfectly well? "I am tired all the time," "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly," "I can hardly drag around today," and all such expressions are characteristic of women who have overtaxed their strength until headaches, backache, nervousness, dragging-down pains, irregularities and the blues, symptoms of a female weakness, have developed. Women who are in this condition may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore them to health and strength.—Adv.

U. S. ARMY NURSE WAS AS GREAT AS ANY OTHER HERO IN FRANCE

Always as Refined and Ladylike as
They Were Brave and Efficient;
As Much Respected as Men.

NEW YORK, July 2.—"Someone should speak for the U. S. Army nurse, who has proved to be as great as any American hero in France," said Mrs. Stocks Miller, supervisor of women's overseas work for the National Catholic War Council, as she called for Paris today to resume management of the Army Nurse hotel, that she has established there.

"We have entertained thousands of these splendid American women for their few days leave in Paris, and have yet to meet one who is not as refined and ladylike as she is brave and efficient," said Mrs. Miller. "Under fire and as severe strain as any soldier, the army nurses have heroically done a great work. They have tremendously hard labor to do in every waking hour, with none of the chances for recreation enjoyed by women welfare workers. Their uniform, even, is the least attractive of all service costumes. In all our overseas war work, my chief impression has been a deep and abiding respect for the American man, and I can assure you that his sister in the army ranks is entitled to just as much respect and admiration."

Besides establishing the Army Nurse hotel, which is the only overseas institution of this sort, Mrs. Miller has been active in conducting the Etelle Service club at 16 Avenue Wagram and the Hotel Cecelia for women war workers in Paris, as well as supervising other activities in the overseas work of the National Catholic War Council. On her trip to this country she has brought messages from the thousands of enlisted men who have made a home of her club, one of the largest and most commodious in Paris. The men who are still detained in France want their folks to know that they are strong, clean and as happy as they can be in spite of a touch of homesickness, Mrs. Miller declares. They are particularly anxious to assure their families that only military duty detains them overseas.—Adv.
